

DORCAS KRUBU INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION

No. 1, Imoisili Lane, Ekpe Close, Ujoelen, Ekpoma, Edo State, Nigeria.
Email: dkif@gmail.com; Phone Lines +234 703 6360 662; +234 903 7090 366

PROFILE OF THE FOUNDER

Dr. Dorcas Ejemeh Krubu is Senior Lecturer and the current Head, Department of Library and Information Science, Ambrose Alli University, Ekpoma, Nigeria. She studied at University of Ibadan where she obtained National Diploma and Higher National Diploma with Distinction in Science Laboratory Technology; Master of Science, Computer and Information Science and Postgraduate Diploma in Education from Ambrose Alli University; Certificate in International Research Collaborative from University of Missouri-St. Louis, USA and PhD in Library and Information Studies from the University of the Western Cape, South Africa.

Dorcas was once a Programme Officer for an Intervention Project in Nigeria, sponsored by United Nations Development Funds for Women. She is a recipient of Nigerian Tertiary Education Trust Fund PhD Scholarship Award for study abroad programme. She has published research works extensively in local, national and international journals, in addition to conference proceedings and chapters in books. She has coordinated and conducted trainings, seminars and public lectures for secondary and tertiary students both home and abroad. She is an Editor to five reputable Journals. Her areas of research interest are information literacy, information behaviour and emerging technologies.

A life member of a number of reputable Associations, she is. Some of them are: Nigerian Library Association (NLA); National Association of Library and Information Science Educators (NALISE); International Research and Development Institute (IRDI), National Association of Women Academics (NAWACS), Ambrose Alli University Chapter; Graduate Women International (GWI) and Nigerian Institute of Science Laboratory Technology.

Dorcas is the Founder of Dorcas Krubu International Foundation based in Ekpoma, Edo State, Nigeria. The Foundation has been in existence and working with the needy since 2002, but incorporated in 2019.